Telephone and E-Mail: (715) 346-4450, kryavec@uwsp.edu

Education:

- 1996-2002 University of Minnesota
Major: Geography (Ph.D. May 2002)
Dissertation title: Land Use Change in Central Tibet, ca. 1830-2000.
- 1987-1989 Harvard University, Cambridge
Major: East Asian Regional Studies (A.M. June 1989)
- 1982-1986 Clark University, Worcester
Major: Geography (A.B. June 1986)
Minor: German

Employment:

- 2002- Present Associate Professor, Department of Geography/Geology, University of Wisconsin, Stevens Point, Wisconsin.
- 1995-1996 Geographer, International Programs Center, U.S. Bureau of the Census, Washington, DC
- 1990-1994 Geographer, U.S. Defense Mapping Agency, Washington, DC

Teaching Experience:

University of Wisconsin at Stevens Point:

- GEOG 120 Cultural Geography. (3 credits) Fall 2002, Spring 2003, Fall 2003, Spring 2004, Fall 2004, Spring 2005, Fall 2005, Spring 2006, Fall 2006, Spring 2007, Fall 2007.
-lectures on major world cultures and regions focusing on interrelationships, including population, agriculture, religion, ethnicity, and politics. Online activities incorporated during Fall 2003: students take quizzes, and post homework assignments from Human Geography in Action. Also post weekly review of current newspaper article on an aspect of human culture, and critique a fellow student's review (on D2L).
-also taught as a 3-week study tour to China and Tibet during first summer terms 2004 and 2005 examining Tibet's rapidly changing urban centers with focus on the traditional Tibetan neighborhoods of Lhasa, and the agricultural and religious geography of surrounding rural areas.
- GEOG 279 Fundamentals of Geographic Information Systems. (2 credits) Spring 2003, Fall 2003, Spring 2004, Winterim 2005, Spring 2005, Winterim 2006, Spring 2006, Winterim 2007, Spring 2007.
-weekly lecture and GIS software instruction for digital lab assignments.
- GEOG 325 Geography of China (3 credits). Spring 2008.
- GEOG 327 Geography of Asia. (3 credits) Spring 2004, Spring 2005, Spring 2006, Spring 2007.
-study of the diverse environmental and social factors that led to the mapping of Asia as a distinct world region concentrating on the historical development and contemporary situation of human cultures in Central, South, Southeast and East Asia.
- GEOG 476 Geographic Information Systems I. Section 1 (3 credits) Fall 2002, Fall 2003,

Fall 2004, Fall 2005, Fall 2006. Fall 2007.
-lectures and weekly GIS lab tutorials.

Other schools:

Raster-Based GIS, University of Minnesota, Spring, 1998, 1999, 2000
Air Photo Interpretation, North Hennepin Community College, Fall 1999
Introduction to Human Geography, Concordia University, Fall 2001
