

Florent Villard
Assistant Professor
Chinese and Transcultural Studies
University of Lyon (Jean Moulin)

Bio :

Florent Villard is the Head of the Department of Chinese Studies, University Jean Moulin Lyon 3, Vice-director of the Institute of Transtextual and Transcultural Studies, and director of publication of Transtexts-Transcultures : Journal of Global Cultural Studies. He is the author of many articles on Chinese modern cultural history involving topics on nationalism, orientalism, translation and postcolonial and transcultural issues. He has published recently “ “Class”, “Race” and Language: Imagining China and the Discourse on the Category “Han” in the Writing of Marxist Revolutionary Qu Qiubai (1899-1935)”, Asian Ethnicities, Volume 11, n°3, Routledge, October 2010, 333-346. He is currently engaged in a research on the Ph. D. thesis of the students of the Lyon Sino-French Institute (1921-1946).