

Hyun Seung Yang

Biography

Hyun Seung Yang is currently a Full and Tenured Professor of Dept. of Computer Science at KAIST (Korea Advanced Institute of Science and Technology).

He was a Dean of Research and Director of Applied Engineering Research Institute of KAIST from March 2005 to July 2010.

He got his BS degree from Dept. of Electronics Engineering, Seoul National University, Korea and both MS and Ph.D. Degrees from School of Electrical Engineering at Purdue University, West Lafayette Indiana USA.

He worked with Dept. of Electrical and Computer Engineering, University of Iowa as an assistant professor. He joined Dept. of Computer Science, KAIST in 1988 and now a full and tenured professor since 1997.

He was a Governing Board Member of IAPR (International Association of Pattern Recognition). He is a Director of VSMM (International Virtual Systems and Multimedia) Society and Steering Committee Members of both ICAT (Intl Conf. on Artificial Reality and Telexistence) and Intl Conf. on Edutainment

He was a Vice President of KIISE (Korea Institute of Information Science and Engineering), KMMS(Korea Multimedia Society) and KRS (Korea Robotics Society). He is a Fellow of the National Academy of Engineering of Korea (NAEK).

He is a General Chair of VSMM2010 (IEEE 16th Int'l Conf. on Virtual Systems and Multimedia), ICEC2010 (IFIP 9th Int'l Conf. on Entertainment Computing) and VRCAI2010 (ACM SIGGRAPH 9th Int'l Conf. on VRCAI).

He was a General Chair of 21CTIS 2009 (21C TransMedia Innovation Symposium), ISAC2009 (Intl Symposium for Arts and Contents) and ICAT 2004. He was also Program Chairs of ICEC 2008, ASIAGRAPH Tokyo 2008 and VSMM 2002.

He served Program Chairs/Program Committee Members of many international conferences on Artificial Intelligence, Virtual Reality, Computer Vision, Robotics, Computer Graphics and Multimedia.

His research activities include Artificial Intelligence/Vision, Human Robotics, VR/MR, Ubiquitous/Wearable Computing, Media Art and Technology.

E-Mail: hsyang@kaist.ac.kr

Homepage: <http://mind.kaist.ac.kr>